BUSINESS RESOURCES AND ASSISTANCE

IMMEDIATE STEPS TO TAKE
As the spread and impact of COVID-19 is still an unknown, EDC recommends employers to take the following action steps:

1. CONTACT YOUR INSURANCE PROVIDER - Do you have business interruption insurance? If so, you may have coverage that supplements any income or sales loss during this time. Note: In response to numerous complaints from businesses, public officials, and other stakeholders, on Tuesday, April 14th the California Insurance Commissioner required companies to comply with their contracts and California law by fairly investigating all business interruption claims caused by COVID-19 – just as they would for any disaster. If you have business disruption insurance we encourage you to connect with you provider and file a claim. For more information, please call 800.927.4357 or visit insurance.ca.gov.

2. CONNECT WITH YOUR LANDLORD - Are you currently renting? On March 27th, Governor Newsom issued Executive Order N-37-20 implementing a statewide eviction moratorium on evictions through May 31st. If you are currently renting and unable to pay rent due to financial hardship and the impact of COVID-19, we encourage you to inform your landlord by completing a Notice of Coronavirus-Related Inability to Pay Rent in order to preserve your rights as a tenant. For more information on Covid-19 moratorium related eviction guidelines in Ventura and Santa Barbara County please visit this website.

3. APPLY FOR UNEMPLOYMENT - If you have lost hours or wages due to the impact of COVID-19, we encourage you to file for unemployment benefits. Note: Pandemic Unemployment Assistance is now available for Self-Employed Individuals. Apply for unemployment here.

4. TRACK LOSSES - During moments of disruption it is important to track any loss your business may have incurred as programs designed to assist cash flow needs and access to capital depend on accurate counts of economic injury and production loss.

5. REVIEW YOUR SUPPLY CHAIN. HAS YOUR BUSINESS EXPERIENCED DISRUPTION OR CONCERN IN THE FOLLOWING AREAS?
   - Supply chain disruption and liability
   - Questions or concerns about the implications of tariffs
   - Technology plans for setting up remote work stations for employees

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR EMPLOYERS TO TAKE NOW

Note: This information is not intended to be used as medical advice. Please contact your local health professional or visit the CDC website for further information.

Actively encourage sick employees to stay home:
Employees who have symptoms of acute respiratory illness are recommended to stay home and not come to work until they are free of fever (100.4°F [37.8°C] or greater using an oral thermometer), signs of a fever, and any other symptoms for at least 24 hours, without the use of fever-reducing or other symptom-altering medicines (e.g. cough suppressants).

Employees should notify their supervisor and stay home if they are sick.

Ensure that your sick leave policies are flexible and consistent with public health guidance and that employees are aware of these policies.

Talk with companies that provide your business with contract or temporary employees about the importance of sick employees staying home and encourage them to develop non-punitive leave policies.

Do not require a healthcare provider’s note for employees who are sick with acute respiratory illness to validate their illness or to return to work, as healthcare provider offices and medical facilities may be extremely busy and not able to provide such documentation in a timely way.

Employers should maintain flexible policies that permit employees to stay home to care for a sick family member. Employers should be aware that more employees may need to stay at home to care for sick children or other sick family members than is usual.

Separate sick employees:
CDC recommends that employees who appear to have acute respiratory illness symptoms (i.e. cough, shortness of breath) upon arrival to work or become sick during the day should be separated from other employees and be sent home immediately. Sick employees should cover their noses and mouths with a tissue when coughing or sneezing (or an elbow or shoulder if no tissue is available).

Emphasize staying home when sick, respiratory etiquette and hand hygiene by all employees:
Place posters that encourage staying home when sick, cough and sneeze etiquette, and hand hygiene at the entrance to your workplace and in other workplace areas where they are likely to be seen.

Provide tissues and no-touch disposal receptacles for use by employees.
Instruct employees to clean their hands often with an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60-95% alcohol, or wash their hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. Soap and water should be used preferentially if hands are visibly dirty.
Provide soap and water and alcohol-based hand rubs in the workplace. Ensure that adequate supplies are maintained. Place hand rubs in multiple locations or in conference rooms to encourage hand hygiene. Visit the coughing and sneezing etiquette and clean hands webpage for more information.

Perform routine environmental cleaning:
Routinely clean all frequently touched surfaces in the workplace, such as workstations, countertops, and doorknobs. Use the cleaning agents that are usually used in these areas and follow the directions on the label.

No additional disinfection beyond routine cleaning is recommended at this time. Provide disposable wipes so that commonly used surfaces (for example, doorknobs, keyboards, remote controls, desks) can be wiped down by employees before each use.

Advise employees before traveling to take certain steps:
Check the CDC’s Traveler’s Health Notices for the latest guidance and recommendations for each country to which you will travel. Specific travel information for travelers going to and returning from China, and information for aircrew, can be found at the CDC website. Advise employees to check themselves for symptoms of acute respiratory illness before starting travel and notify their supervisor and stay home if they are sick.

Ensure employees who become sick while traveling or on temporary assignment understand that they should notify their supervisor and should promptly call a healthcare provider for advice if needed.

If outside the United States, sick employees should follow your company’s policy for obtaining medical care or contact a healthcare provider or overseas medical assistance company to assist them with finding an appropriate healthcare provider in that country. A U.S. consular officer can help locate healthcare services. However, U.S. embassies, consulates, and military facilities do not have the legal authority, capability, and resources to evacuate or give medicines, vaccines, or medical care to private U.S. citizens overseas.

Apply for unemployment here.

Nonprofits fall into three categories for UI:

1. “Experience Rating” – nonprofits pay into a UI account just like other businesses, through payroll taxes incurred on each employee paycheck. When a former employee files an unemployment claim, those funds come from the UI account you have paid into.
2. “Reimbursable Method” – nonprofits do not pay into a UI account. When a former employee files an unemployment claim, the organization must reimburse the state for the full cost of unemployment benefits paid to the former employee.
3. “Special Exclusion Entities” – nonprofits that are exempt from UI, typically religious and educational organizations. For guidelines on who is excluded from required UI and SDI, click here. For more information visit the Department of Labor.

To find out which method your organization is using:
1. Ask your tax preparer, CPA and/or office manager
2. Your organization would have filed these two forms:
   a. Selection of financing method by a nonprofit organization
   b. Nonprofit employers registration and update form
3. If you see “CA SDI” on employee paystubs, you are using the “Experience Rating” method

If your organization uses the ‘experience rating method’ for UI and SDI, your employees can file for unemployment, claims will come out of your organization’s UI account, and your UI rate may increase next year based on the number of claims from your organization.

If your organization uses the ‘reimbursable method’ for UI and SDI, your employees can file for unemployment, and your organization will be expected to reimburse the State for the full cost of the benefits, not including the additional $600 increase included in the CARES act, which is paid for by the State and reimbursed by the federal government.

If your organization is excluded from UI and SDI, your employees are only eligible for Unemployment if the President declares a major disaster. Currently, California, New York and Washington have been declared a ‘major disaster,’ so employees of these excluded organizations should now be eligible to file for COVID-related unemployment.

Our understanding is that, regardless of your UI method, all former nonprofits employees are eligible for UI and we are encouraging your former employees to apply for UI benefits.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR EMPLOYERS TO TAKE NOW

Note: This information is not intended to be used as medical advice. Please contact your local health professional or visit the CDC website for further information.

Actively encourage sick employees to stay home:
Employees who have symptoms of acute respiratory illness are recommended to stay home and not come to work until they are free of fever (100.4°F [37.8°C] or greater using an oral thermometer), signs of a fever, and any other symptoms for at least 24 hours, without the use of fever-reducing or other symptom-altering medicines (e.g. cough suppressants).

Employees should notify their supervisor and stay home if they are sick.

Ensure that your sick leave policies are flexible and consistent with public health guidance and that employees are aware of these policies.

Talk with companies that provide your business with contract or temporary employees about the importance of sick employees staying home and encourage them to develop non-punitive leave policies.

Do not require a healthcare provider’s note for employees who are sick with acute respiratory illness to validate their illness or to return to work, as healthcare provider offices and medical facilities may be extremely busy and not able to provide such documentation in all timely way.

Employers should maintain flexible policies that permit employees to stay home to care for a sick family member. Employers should be aware that more employees may need to stay at home to care for sick children or other sick family members than is usual.

Separate sick employees:
CDC recommends that employees who appear to have acute respiratory illness symptoms (i.e. cough, shortness of breath) upon arrival to work or become sick during the day should be separated from other employees and be sent home immediately. Sick employees should cover their noses and mouths with a tissue when coughing or sneezing (or an elbow or shoulder if no tissue is available).

Emphasize staying home when sick, respiratory etiquette and hand hygiene by all employees:
Place posters that encourage staying home when sick, cough and sneeze etiquette, and hand hygiene at the entrance to your workplace and in other workplace areas where they are likely to Provide tissues and no-touch disposal receptacles for use by employees. Instruct employees to clean their hands often with an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60-95% alcohol, or wash their hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. Soap and water should be used preferentially if hands are visibly dirty.

Provide soap and water and alcohol-based hand rubs in the workplace. Ensure that adequate supplies are maintained. Place hand rubs in multiple locations or in conference rooms to encourage hand hygiene. Visit the coughing and sneezing etiquette and clean hands webpage for more information.

Perform routine environmental cleaning:
Routinely clean all frequently touched surfaces in the workplace, such as workstations, countertops, and doorknobs. Use the cleaning agents that are usually used in these areas and follow the directions on the label.
No additional disinfection beyond routine cleaning is recommended at this time. Provide disposable wipes so that commonly used surfaces (for example, doorknobs, keyboards, remote controls, desks) can be wiped down by employees before each use.

Advise employees before traveling to take certain steps:
Check the CDC’s Traveler’s Health Notices for the latest guidance and recommendations for each country to which you will travel. Specific travel information for travelers going to and returning from China, and information for aircrew, can be found at on the CDC website. Advise employees to check themselves for symptoms of acute respiratory illness before starting travel and notify their supervisor and stay home if they are sick.

Ensure employees who become sick while traveling or on temporary assignment understand that they should notify their supervisor and should promptly call a healthcare provider for advice if needed.

If outside the United States, sick employees should follow your company’s policy for obtaining medical care or contact a healthcare provider or overseas medical assistance company to assist them with finding an appropriate healthcare provider in that country. A U.S. consular officer can help locate healthcare services. However, U.S. embassies, consulates, and military facilities do not have the legal authority, capability, and resources to evacuate or give medicines, vaccines, or medical care to private U.S. citizens overseas.
FACT SHEET – ECONOMIC INJURY DISASTER LOANS

CALIFORNIA Declaration #16332
(Disaster: CA-00313)
Incident: CORONAVIRUS (COVID-19)
occuring: January 31, 2020 & continuing

All counties within the State of California:
the contiguous Arizona counties of: La Paz, Mohave & Yuma;
the contiguous Nevada counties of: Clark, Douglas, Esmeralda, Lyon, Mineral, Nye & Washoe; and the contiguous Oregon counties of: Curry, Jackson, Josephine, Klamath & Lake

Application Filing Deadline: December 16, 2020

Disaster Loan Assistance Available:
Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) – Working capital loans to help small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture, and most private, non-profit organizations of all sizes meet their ordinary and necessary financial obligations that cannot be met as a direct result of the disaster. These loans are intended to assist through the disaster recovery period.

Credit Requirements:
- Credit History – Applicants must have a credit history acceptable to SBA.
- Repayment – Applicants must show the ability to repay the loan.
- Collateral – Collateral is required for all EIDL loans over $25,000. SBA takes real estate as collateral when it is available. SBA will not decline a loan for lack of collateral, but SBA will require the borrower to pledge collateral that is available.

Interest Rates:
The interest rate is determined by formulas set by law and is fixed for the life of the loan. The maximum interest rate for this disaster is 3.75 percent.

Loan Terms:
The law authorizes loan terms up to a maximum of 30 years. SBA will determine an appropriate installment payment based on the financial condition of each borrower, which in turn will determine the loan term.

Loan Amount Limit:
The law limits EIDLs to $2,000,000 for alleviating economic injury caused by the disaster. The actual amount of each loan is limited to the economic injury determined by SBA, less business interruption insurance and other recoveries up to the administrative lending limit. SBA also considers potential contributions that are available from the business and/or its owner(s) or affiliates. If a business is a major source of employment, SBA has the authority to waive the $2,000,000 statutory limit.

Loan Eligibility Restrictions:
Noncompliance – Applicants who have not complied with the terms of previous SBA loans may not be eligible. This includes borrowers who did not maintain required flood insurance and/or hazard insurance on previous SBA loans.

Note: Loan applicants should check with agencies / organizations administering any grant or other assistance program under this declaration to determine how an approval of SBA disaster loan might affect their eligibility.

Refinancing:
Economic injury disaster loans cannot be used to refinance long term debts.

Insurance Requirements:
To protect each borrower and the Agency, SBA may require you to obtain and maintain appropriate insurance. By law, borrowers whose damaged or collateral property is located in a special flood hazard area must purchase and maintain flood insurance. SBA requires that flood insurance coverage be the lesser of 1) the total of the disaster loan, 2) the insurable value of the property, or 3) the maximum insurance available.

Applicants may apply online, receive additional disaster assistance information and download applications at https://disasterloan.sba.gov/ela. Applicants may also call SBA’s Customer Service Center at (800) 659-2955 or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance. Individuals who are deaf or hard-of-hearing may call (800) 877-8339. Completed applications should be mailed to U.S. Small Business Administration, Processing and Disbursement Center, 14925 Kingsport Road, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL)

The maximum loan size is $2 million. Applicants who apply for this loan may request an advance Emergency EIDL grant of up to $10,000 from the SBA.

Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)

Loans can be up to 2.5 x the borrower’s average monthly payroll costs, not to exceed $10 million.

How to Calculate:

1. Aggregate payroll costs (defined in detail below) from the last twelve months for employees whose principal place of residence is the United States.
2. Subtract any compensation paid to an employee in excess of an annual salary of $100,000 and/or any amounts paid to an independent contractor or sole proprietor in excess of $100,000 per year.
3. Calculate average monthly payroll costs (divide the amount from Step 2 by 12).
4. Multiply the average monthly payroll costs from Step 3 by 2.5.
5. Add the outstanding amount of an Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) made between January 31, 2020 and April 3, 2020, less the amount of any “advance” under an EIDL COVID-19 loan (because it does not have to be repaid).

Seasonal business may use the period February 15, 2019 – June 30, 2019 or March 1, 2019 – June 30, 2019 to calculate the average payroll.

“Payroll” includes:

- Compensation to employees (whose principal place of residence is the United States) in the form of salary, wages, commissions, or similar compensation
- Cash tips or the equivalent (based on employer records of past tips or, in the absence of such records, a reasonable, good-faith employer estimate of such tips)
- Payment for vacation, parental, family, medical, or sick leave
- Allowance for separation or dismissal
- Payment for the provision of employee benefits consisting of group health care coverage, including insurance premiums, and retirement
- Payment of state and local taxes assessed on compensation of employees
- For an independent contractor or sole proprietor, wage, commissions, income, or net earnings from self-employment or similar compensation.

“Payroll” for businesses excludes:

- Annual salary in excess of $100,000
- Foreign employees
- FICA and income tax withholdings
- Qualified sick and family leave wages for which a credit is allowed under sections 7001 and 7003 of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act

Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL)

- Payroll costs
- Fixed debts (mortgage, rent, lease)
- Accounts payable
- Other bills

Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)

- Payroll costs, including benefits
- Interest on mortgage obligations, incurred before February 15, 2020
- Rent, under lease agreements in force before February 15, 2020

Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL)

Businesses in certain industries may have more than 500 employees if they meet the SBA’s size standards for those industries.

Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)

You are ineligible for a PPP loan if:

- You are engaged in any activity that is illegal under federal, state, or local law
- You are a household employer (individuals who employ household employees such as nannies or housekeepers)
- An owner of 20 percent or more of the equity of the applicant is incarcerated, on probation, on parole; presently subject to an indictment, criminal information, arraignment, or other means by which formal criminal charges are brought in any jurisdiction; or has been convicted of a felony within the last five years
- You, or any business owned or controlled by you or any of your owners, has ever obtained a direct or guaranteed loan from SBA or any other Federal agency that is currently delinquent or has defaulted within the last seven years and caused a loss to the government

You may only apply for one PPP Loan.

Your loan forgiveness will be reduced if you decrease the number of your full time and/or decrease salaries and wages by more than 25% for any employee that made less than $100,000 annualized in 2019.

Re-Hiring: You have until June 30, 2020 to restore your full time employment and salary levels for any changes made between February 15, 2020 and April 26, 2020.

Due to likely high subscription, at least 75% of the forgiven amount must have been used for payroll.

ELIGIBLE EXPENSES

- Payroll costs (as defined in the “Amount” section)
- Costs related to the continuation of group health care benefits during periods of paid sick, medical, or family leave, and insurance premiums
- Mortgage interest payments (but not mortgage prepayments or principal payments)
- Rent payments
- Utility payments
- Interest payments on any other debt obligations that were incurred before February 15, 2020
- Refinancing an SBA EIDL loan made between January 31, 2020 and April 3, 2020. If you received an SBA EIDL loan from January 31, 2020 16 through April 3, 2020, you can apply for a PPP loan. If your EIDL loan was not used for payroll costs, it does not affect your eligibility for a PPP loan. If your EIDL loan was used for payroll costs, your PPP loan must be used to refinance your EIDL loan. Proceeds from any advance up to $10,000 on the EIDL loan will be deducted from the loan forgiveness amount on the PPP loan.
